Oldest house in Biltmore Forest! Once known as the Stagecoach Inn along what is today Hendersonville Rd. An expansive stone wall now tucks this Federal farmhouse-style home into the historic neighborhood it predates. Huge rooms, high ceilings, wide heart pine floors, 6 FPs, exceptional period molding, built-ins and delightful nooks & crannies. Projects to be done? Sure. Even floors? No way. Quirky? You bet! A great opportunity for a private urban retreat and a significant and treasured part of Asheville's early history. Close proximity to Hendersonville Road means road noise outside! True city living but w/nearly 1&1/2 acres. PRICE REFLECTS LOCATION AND AGE.
